

South Carolina Council of Catholic Women

2023 Woman Religious of the Year Nomination Form

The Woman Religious of the Year was established in 1995 by the South Carolina Council of Catholic Women (SCCCW) and is presented annually to a Sister who has made a significant contribution to the Roman Catholic Church in South Carolina. The recipient of this honor is recognized annually at the SCCCW Convention.

To be eligible, nominees must be presently ministering in the Diocese of Charleston and have worked in South Carolina for at least five years (not necessarily consecutive years).

Nominee: _____

Religious Affiliation: _____

Address: _____

Phone Number: _____

Please describe your nominee's accomplishments. ("This nomination is in recognition of...") You may use additional pages.

Nominated By: _____

Address: _____

Phone Number: _____

Attention, Affiliate Presidents/Deanery Presidents!

Please submit all nominations for the 2023 Woman Religious of the Year to Elese Amos-Goodwin, SCCCW President, no later than the SCCCW Pre-Convention Meeting, January 21, 2023!

Entries may be delivered in person or mailed. If an entry is mailed, it must be postmarked by and received no later than January 21, 2023. Mailed entries must be sent to the following address:

Elese Amos-Goodwin, President
12 Brighton Circle
Charleston, SC 29414